HMS Student Artwork on KDHE Calendar

The Kansas Department of Health and Environment (KDHE) recently announced the winners for the 2012 “Kansas Don’t Spoil It! Calendar Contest.” Haysville Middle School eighth grade student Mary Miller was at the Kansas Statehouse in Topeka on December 14 to be recognized for her art work to be showcased in the September section of the calendar. (Photo) Participating in the recognition ceremony were: (from left) KDHE Secretary Robert Moser, MD; HMS art teacher Nicole Taylor; Mary Miller; and Governor Sam Brownback. (Kansas State Photo)
