Rex Elementary Hosts Cheney Volunteers

Rex Elementary School fourth grader Jaden Shepard (left) reads a book with Jackson Chance (right), a volunteer from Cheney High School. On January 24, twenty Cheney High School juniors volunteered their time at Rex Elementary providing mentoring and tutoring services, along with completing clerical work for the school's teachers. The visit by Cheney students was their fourth year partnering with Communities In Schools (CIS) for their yearly Community Service Project! CIS & Rex Elementary School would like to thank Cheney High School students for volunteering their time and making a difference in our students lives. (USD 261 Photo)
